STUNG!

Which should remind you that now is the time to order SCREENS for the house. You're certain to need them before the season is over, so why not buy them at once and get the full benefit of them? They'll cost just as much after awhile as they do now. We have a complete stock of all sizes, both plain and fancy. Good, heavy frames and the best wire screen. Make a memo of the number and sizes you want and let us quote you. And don't forget to let us figure on that lumber you are going to use. We have the choicest stock in this section.

H. H. Collins Lumber Co.

OUCH!
A maiden fair with sun-kissed hair
Came tripping down the street;
Her face serene, her age sixteen,
Oh, my! but she was sweet.
On the sidewalk slick she came down quick
With a jolt that shook her curls;
And the word she used must be excused,
'Cause—she's one of the Senior girls.

The gates of Beautiful Beechwood will be thrown open to the public at 7 o'clock tonight and the Park season of 1907 will be on. The Casino is under the management of Messrs. Hamilton and Russell, and with their knowledge of the show world, we can look for an entertaining program always. An innovation this season will be two shows each night, the first starting at 7:30 and the second at 8:30, or just as soon as the first show is concluded. For the week starting tonight the program will be as follows: Gilles Button, the black-face monologist and singer; Mr. Jack Howard, baritone, singing the latest song successes, illustrated by beautifully colored slides; Teed and Lazelle in a very funny comedy sketch, and the famous Kinodrome projecting moving pictures that are new, operated by Mr. Raynor Stickney, who has just completed an engagement at one of Chicago's leading vaudeville theaters. This should make up a very entertaining program and at the small admission price of 10 cents the Casino should be packed every night. And then in conclusion it is always cool at Beechwood.

SELF-STYLED PROPHET

With Elongated Hair and Needing a Bath—a Sunday Arrival in Maysville

Yesterday morning Church-goers and worldly people as well were attracted by the passage down Sutton street of an antiquated vehicle drawn by a horse of ancient date and driven by a patriarch who gave his name and mission as Henry Bush, D. D., forerunner of Christ's second coming.

A white flag on a pole attached to the forefront of the vehicle fluttered in the morning breeze and bore on its folds biblical quotations indicating peace and good will to all mankind.

The whole outfit—man, horse and carriage—were oddities in appearance and make-up, all three being in accord, old, dirty and dilapidated.

On being interrogated he said he was born in Canada, had preached the Gospel for 45 years, had traveled from Florida and was en route to a point in Ohio. When he is not taken in at night and given a bed by a good Samaritan, he bunks in his vehicle. "The Lord feeds the ravens and he provides for me," is his consolation and trust.

If cleanliness is next to Godliness, then Bush certainly has a poor chance of entering the pearly gates if old Peter is on guard.

All Vegetables Cheaper!

Strawberries are about done. Raspberries in a few days. We offer you Fancy Canteloupes, Gooseberries, Pineapples, Bananas, Tomatoes and Cucumbers are fine and cheap. With your order include a bottle of Grape Juice. The Ferndell Brand is the best.

HISTORIC GAVEL

One of the Beautiful and Sacred Relics of Methodism

Rev. J. D. Walsh of this city is the maker and owner of a noted gavel.

It is made of sixteen pieces of cherry and black walnut taken from the old Masterson mansion near Lexington, in which Bishop Asbury held the first Methodist Conference in Kentucky, May 15th, 1790.

At the General Conference held in Omaha, Neb., May 11th, 1892; Bishop Joyce used this gavel. Bishop Walden used it at the Conference held in Cleveland, O., in 1896. Bishop Merrill used it the opening of General Conference in Chicago, 1900. Bishops Goodsell and Cranston used it at Los Angeles, Cal., in 1904; at Dallas, Texas, 1902. Bishop Morrison used it in General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and at Birmingham, Ala., in 1906. Bishops Galloway and Tigert used the gavel.

All the foregoing facts are engraved on silver plate on handle and gavel.

The workmanship is of a high order and indicates that Rev. Walsh besides being an excellent pulpit orator and expounder of the Gospel, is something of an artist when it comes to the mechanical arts.

ANYHOW HARRY ORCHARD didn't lay it on a woman.

GEORGE BERNARD SHAW would abolish poverty, and yet he expects a suffering public to pay $2 and $3 per seat to see one of his plays, says The Louisville Post.

If one man sayeth to another in the good old summer time, "is it hot enough for you?" spot him on the snout, telephone for the dead wagon and send bill to THE PUBLIC LEDGER.

EVERY political platform is necessarily built on platitudes, and Democrats and Republicans alike generally take a crack at the universe in building them. In these times creeds count for very little; it's votes that tell the tale.

A PORTSMOUTH woman was granted a divorce because her husband smoked cigarettes in bed. That was calculated to make a woman hot.—Portsmouth Blade.

WILLIAM A. PINKERTON, the boss detective, in a recent address on crime, declared that it doesn't pay to be a robber, and says:

"There is no crime in America so hazardous as hold-up robbery. Over two-thirds engaged in it have eventually been either killed outright operating or resisting arrest or lynched by posses.
"I have maintained that no crime pays, and 95 per cent. of criminals die in debt and frequently in want."

THIS appears to be an era of good feeling generally. The lion and the lamb lieth down together and the fire-eating Kentuckians imbibe moonshine from the same cup, etc. The two erst-while belligerent Nicholas county Editors, who, but a brief space ago were hurling blasphemous invective at each other through their columns, accusing each other of all the red crimes in the calendar, have evidently buried the tomahawk and the scalping knife and ceased their acrimonious warfare of ink-slinging. With peace in Carlisle's editorial sanctums, an enormous rabbit crop in the winter, and a bumper blackberry harvest in summer, old Nicholas is doubly blessed and should pine no more for happiness.

AND THEY LAUGHED.

Houston Post.

A revival was in progress and sister Jones was called upon for testimony. Being meek and humble, she said: "I do not feel as though I should stand here and give testimony. I have been a transgressor for a good many years and only recently seen the light. I believe that my place is a dark corner behind the door."
Bro. Smith was next called up on for his testimony and, following the example set by Sister Jones, said: I too, have been a sinner for more than forty years, and I do think it would be fitting for me to stand before this assembly as a model. I think my place is behind the door, in a dark corner with Sister Jones.

And he wondered why the meeting was convulsed with laughter.

AT THE TELEPHONE

"Hello, central!"
"Hello!" Click, click, click, click!
"Central, if you please, give me the Hotel Jamb."
"What number?" Click, click, click.
"I don't know the number." Click, click.

"All right, I'll get information for you."

Buzz, buzz, buzz, buzz. Central on the track of information. Wild voice on cross wire:

"What number is this? What? What?" Click!

Buzz, buzz, buzz, buzz! Information gone to the tall timbers. Central in hotfoot pursuit. Phonograph.

"Central! I want the Hotel Jamb. Have you forgotten?"

"No! No! It's all right. Hold the wire. Get information for you. In a minute!"

"Buzz, buzz, buzz, buzz! The hoofs of Central's horse in pursuit of information. Information hiding behind a tall tree. Central almost upon her, but not quite. Deep bass voice singing.

"Central! That number! I want that number!" Click, click, click. Phonograph.

"Central! Will you give me the Hotel Jamb?"

"All right. I'm getting information for you!"

Rat a tat tat. Rat a tat tat! Information's horse's hoofs at the door. Click, click, click, click! Information's high heels as she leaps from the back of her high horse.

Buzz, buzz, buzz, buzz! Triumphant voice of Central:

"Here she is!" Click, click, buzz, buzz.

Information in a voice tired from her long wanderings:

"Well, what is it?"

"The Hotel Jamb."

"Do you know the number?" Voice very tired.

"If I knew the number, information, I wouldn't have asked for you. I would have looked it up myself."

Information's voice still more tired.

"What street is it on?"

"Seventh street."

"What avenues is it between?"

"Between Fifth and Sixth avenues."

"On the north side of the street or the south?"

"On the north side of the street."

"And you don't know the number?"

"Information! If I knew the number I wouldn't—"

Information quickly:

"Very well, I'll try to find it for you, but it's a pity you didn't know the number."

"Buzz, buzz, buzz, buzz. Click, click, click. Singing of a canary bird. Buzzzzzz, buzz, buzz, buzz! Sharp voice:

"Don't you tell me!" Click!

"Central! The Hotel Jamb!"

Central, hurriedly: "All right! I've found information. She's looking it up for you."

Buzz, buzz, buzz, buzz! Strange cross-wire voice:

"Central! That number!"

Central: "All right. They're busy. They're busy, I say. Shall I call you?"

Strange voice, pitifully: "I've been waiting an hour!"

Central: "I say they're busy. Shall I call you?"

"Central! The Hotel Jamb!"

Central: "All right. Information is looking up for you. Here she is now. Here's information!"

Click, click, click! Information's feet approaching. Buzz, buzz!

Information: "Was it the Hotel Jamb you wanted?"

"The Hotel Jamb."

"On Seventh street?"

"Yes. On Seventh street."

"Between Fifth and Sixth avenues?"

Click, click, click! Fire alarm! Bell ringing! Phonograph!

Information: "I have found the Hotel Jamb. The telephone number is 546789321 Morningside. Shall I connect you?"

"Good heavens! Information, if I hadn't wanted you to... what would have been the..."

Click, click, click, click! Phonograph... Click!

Voice: "Well, this is the Hotel Jamb."

P. S.—Don't buy anything in Drygoods, Notions, until you learn our prices. 100 pieces new Lawns in; see them; 5c, 8c, 10c up.

Strawberries, HOME GROWN

Are now coming. My usual arrangements with the growers will enable me to place on the market here within two hours after picked the finest berries that come to this market. The berries will be sold in the original packages filled by the pickers in the patches and in full size cups, consequently the buyer will always get full and honest measure. No dumping out and refilling will be allowed in my house.

"PERFECTION" is the name of the finest Flour sold in Maysville. No better can be made. It always gives satisfaction.

COFFEES—My stock is the largest in the city. I buy directly from the importers green and have them roasted and blended according to my own ideas after an experience of many years in the business. Always fresh; no stale goods ever offered.

TEAS—My stock is the finest and prices the lowest. Can't beat them anywhere.

FRESH VEGETABLES—During the season my house, as usual, will be head quarters for the very best and freshest Vegetables the markets afford.

CUT PRICES ON CANNED GOODS still continue and will until all closed out.

HAMS AND BREAKFAST BACON—My arrangement with the packers enables me to offer to the trade the finest and most delicious that can be made. Always cured out of selected young hogs. When you want the best always buy the Star Brand in Red Canvases.

My LARD is made by the same packer especially for my trade and is strictly Pure Leaf Lard. I guarantee every article I sell to be just as recommended. I buy Butter, Eggs, Poultry, Country Hams, Bacon and all kinds of Country Produce, for which I pay cash. Country people when in our city specially invited to come in; you are always welcome.

George F. Dieterle, of Cincinnati was elected President National Wholesale Liquor Dealers Association at Atlantic City.

Mrs. S. B. McCord of Dayton, Ohio, visited her father, Mr. O. D. Burgoyne and other relatives in the county last week.

Mr. Thomas H. Gray of East Second street will address the Mt. Olivet Christian Church Assembly Friday July 12th at 2 o'clock.

Charles Watkins of Nicholas county and James McFarland of Fleming went to Mt. Sterling, got drunk, and it is charged, stole a buggy from James Richards, a farmer of Montgomery county. They were arrested, and, after a trial, in default of bail, they were placed in Jail.

Elijah Spears, aged 18, a colored waif from Terre Haute, Ind., got into an altercation with a colored girl, named Cora Carr near the ball park yesterday afternoon, and in the interchange of throwing stones the girl was struck on the head and is reported in a precarious condition, while Spears occupies a cell in the County Jail. The boy dropped off here during Sun Brothers visit to our city.

DULEY—GARNETT.

Mr. Charles Duley and Miss Amy Garnett were married Saturday at 1 p. m. at the home of the bride at Hillsboro.

Miss Garnett formerly resided in Maysville. She is a very attractive young lady, and her marriage will be a pleasant surprise to her many friends here.

The groom is the son of Editor Hiram Duley of Flemingsburg and a nephew of Mr. John Duley of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Duley are now on a bridal trip to New Orleans.

Rev. Robert M. Hopkins the well known Sunday-school evangelist of Louisville will be program director and leader of song at the Mt. Olivet Christian Assembly which begins Wednesday July 3d and continues until July 14th.

KICKERS' CORNER

If any one at any time for any reason has any cause to "kick" in any way at anything of any kind, here's the place to say his say. The door is open—walk right in and help yourself, free gratis and for nothing—but don't make your "kicks" too long—it's the short, quick follow that count—and out.

The name of the kicker must accompany the kick, or it'll be kicked into the waste-basket.

SPRINGDALE, KY., June 5th, 1907.

Editor Public Ledger—Dear Sir: In former kicks we have charged incompetency on the part of those in authority; or those having the care of turnpike repairs. We think the specifications heretofore set forth by this kicker have wrought some good, for in a short time after the first kick, Forest avenue was treated somewhat after the manner suggested, and the result was a revelation to those who had previous to that time been compelled to use that road. It is now a pleasure to drive over its smooth surface, proving to a demonstration what a little "Turnpike brains" can do with little, if any, extra cost. So we repeat and insist that "know how" is what we lack in road repair. Turn the rascals out, is the only remedy, especially in this end of the county. If criticized, the boss make vicious attack on private citizens, and goes to work digging up the best piece of road bed in his bailiwick. The latest fraud was perpetrated Monday, June 3d, when Sycamore Hill was put badly out of repair. Why this vandalism? Is being asked by almost every one; the road bed in some ten or twelve places from near the center, at intervals, on alternate sides, was dug into trenches, and the metal thrown up into piles. Thus this magnificent piece of smooth road was put badly out of repair. Was this vandal act in anticipation of the visit of the Fiscal Court committee?

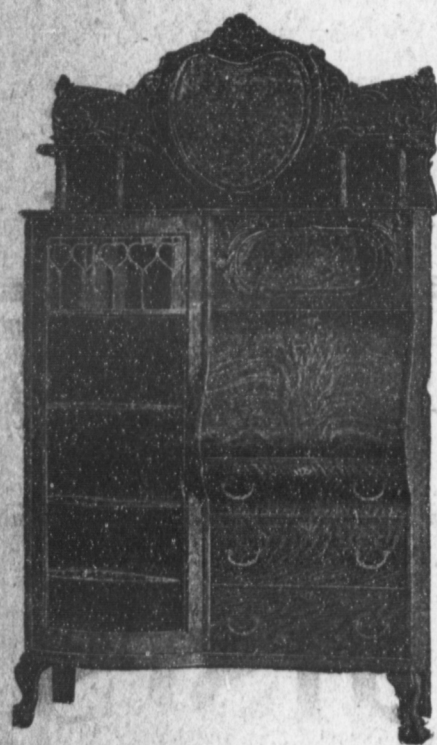

And now at this present time great ugly piles of unbroken stone is being hauled and piled along on the road way; and these nuisances; within four hundred yards of the best erect gravel, in inexhaustible quantities, that can be put on at one third the cost of this ruck. Mr. Taxpayer this is how not to do it and tells you in brief what becomes of your road funds, which are ample if the necessary "Know How" is applied.

William Clendinne, former member of the Canadian Parliament and once Mayor of Montreal, was cut in two by a train Saturday at Depew, N. Y.

The towboat Nellie sank in twenty feet of water in Clark's river, near Paducah, and the Captain and crew escaped with difficulty. It is believed that the boat was scuttled, and it will be raised to determine the cause of the wreck.

Mr. Frank L. Devine, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Devine of Market street, who has been attending St. Mary's College, Maryland, preparatory to entering the priesthood, at the summer examination won two out of three awards for excellence in studies.

The Chicago Park Commission has granted permission for the making of a replica of St. Gauden's famous statue of Abraham Lincoln which will be erected at Hodgenville. The Chicago statue cost $125,000, and there is $13,500 available for the replica.

In an item in Saturday's Ledger referring to Miss Ellen Kirk's Hilltop soiree, the name of Miss Susie Armstrong was inadvertently omitted. She was one of the fairest of the fair equisettes who galloped merrily, by the moon's soft glow, with the gay cavalcade, and spent an evening of delightful enjoyment at the party.

Mr. John C. Lovel, came down from Lexington Saturday and Sunday with his father, Hon. R. B. Lovel.

The Sittlinger-DeAtley case in Squire Boyer's Court Saturday was a hung jury—four for acquittal and two for conviction. Mrs. Sittlinger charged DeAtley with pointing firearms and threatening her bodily harm. The trouble originated over the elopement and marriage of the former's daughter, an account of which appeared in a recent issue of THE LEDGER.

A SAMPLE

Of the Fool Things an Editor Has to Stand For

Below we publish a couple of communications received by THE PUBLIC LEDGER recently. They are probably trying to guy us, but as our name isn't "Guy" or "Mr. Green," we print them nevertheless in order to show how reckless some people can be and how game a little newspaper can sometimes appear:

CINCINNATI, O., June 11, 1907.

Mayville Public Ledger, Mayville, Ky.: Gentlemen: Would you be so kind as to insert the following in your personal column for a few days?

"Wanted—2 pretty 18-year-old girls by two gentlemen who are going to visit Mayville in a short time. Address, Albert Wasser, 431 Twelfth street, Newport, Ky."

Thanking you for the above, I remain, yours truly,
A. W.

MAYSVILLE, KY., June 12, 1907.

The Mayville Ledger, Mayville, Ky.: Gentlemen: Mr. John G. Papagiorgacopoulos, the Italian who runs the shoe shining parlor at 1113 Delaware and New York streets, Anderson, Indiana, shined M. B. Mawhorter's shoes before his piano recital. Yours very truly,
M. B. MAWHORTER.

Messrs. Mawhorter and Wasser should form a combine in the funny business and stage their team work before a waiting public.

The gage marks 14.7 and falling.

The Virginia will be down tonight from Pittsburgh.

The W. W. O'Neil is on her way to Pittsburgh with a tow.

The river is falling at Pittsburgh and Government work has been resumed on the locks and dams.

Mrs. M. B. Greene, commander of the steamer Greenland, has seen sixteen years of service on the Ohio.

Upon her arrival at Louisville, and as soon as a tow can be made, the Sprague will be sent back to Southern waters with coal.

John Donald of Ripley has purchased the small towboat, Ada V., which has been used as a harbor boat at Cincinnati. Mr. Donald will overhaul the boat and use her for towing purposes.

All matter for publication must be handed in before 9 o'clock a. m.

A welcome and much needed rain fell in this vicinity last night doing the growing crops immense good.

Ashland Independent.

Mrs. Weedon of East Carter avenue, entertained at 6 o'clock dinner last evening in compliment to Miss Myra Walker of Mason county, who is visiting Mrs. J. T. Willett. Other guests were Messrs. Hord Willett and John Woods.

PILES

"I have suffered with piles for thirty-six years. One year ago last April I began taking Cascarets for constipation. In the course of a week I noticed the piles began to disappear and at the end of six weeks they did not trouble me at all. Cascarets have done wonders for me. I am entirely cured and feel like a new man." George Kryder, Napoleon, O.

AUTOMOBILE BARGAINS!

THE AUTO-MOTOR CAR CO. makes a specialty of handling second hand bargains, as well as selling new high grade cars. It frequently happens that other makes of cars are taken, partly in exchange, for our New Welch, Rainier, Stoddard-Dayton, Jackson and Rambler. We must get rid of them at some price. A car used two or three times no longer commands the regular factory price, although it is a perfect machine. You can pick up a bargain in our Garage any time.

SPRINGDALE.

To be awakened at peep of dawn by the joyous trills of mocking birds, that are joined a little later by those of the cardinal, oriole, tanager, thrush and others of the feathered warblers, is one of the rare treats of these fine, cool June days. Another, and one still more unique for the season, is to sit in front of a big fireplace filled with blazing logs and listen to the rattle of hailstones on the roof.

We are in receipt of two copies of the Vanceburg Sun, in which are two excellent articles, practical and to the point on good roads. This is a question that should be written and talked about whenever the opportunity occurs 'til those in control are made to realize that the taxpayers are tired of riding over roads made up of boulders over which horses stumble and the buggy bumps or holes into which the wheels chuck, especially when such conditions are altogether unnecessary.

Mrs. Frances Griswold McGregor left Thursday for her home in Reno, Nevada, after a pleasant month's visit with Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Degman at Maplewood. This was her first visit to a Southern state, and she was enthusiastic over the scenic beauty and especially over the variety of song birds that greeted her with an almost continuous concert during her entire stay in Kentucky. Mrs. McGregor is a native of New York, and went with her husband to California

23 years ago. They lived on a ranch for several years; then for the purpose of educating their three children, they exchanged the ranch for real estate in the rapidly growing city of Reno, where they established a lovely home. Becoming a widow a few years ago, she grew homesick for her native state, and returned to New York in April, 1906. She spent a year among the remaining relatives and friends of the long ago. She is a charter member and a prominent worker in the W. C. T. U. of Nevada, and spent much time while here and in the East gathering statistics and material for efficient future work in that Order.

BOGGS.

Rev. M. Waller, D. D., was here Saturday and Monday.

*John Osborn has purchased a new upright piano from a Maysville firm.

Mrs. Lida Hoard of Vanceburg is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Clark.

Mr. Omar Boggs is in Cincinnati this week, the guest of Prof. Vosmer of Walnut Hills.

Rev. J. M. Evans of Maysville was here from Saturday until Monday and preached at Ebenezer Sunday.

Marie and Harry Tully, who have been attending school in Maysville are here for the summer, the guests of their grandparents.

Mrs. Sallie Truesdale of near Pearis, died Sunday, aged 85. She leaves several children, including Mrs. H. C. and Mrs. W. H. Ferguson of this place.

Misses Jennie and May Dornin of near Lewisburg were pleasant guests of their cousins, Misses Alma and Bertha Hunt, at this place from Saturday until Monday.

Postmasters of this section were required to note the number of pieces of mail which passed through their offices last week and report to the Postoffice Department. About 32 first-class pieces were dispatched from this office and about 68 were received to say nothing of second, third and fourth-class matter.

While passing through here Sunday evening, as he was returning home from Tollesboro, Fred Tully's horse frightened, overturned the buggy and ran away. Fortunately neither Fred nor the horse were hurt and the buggy is not beyond repair.

Prices of stock seem to be soaring high: W. H. Ferguson sold a two-year-old colt for $115, W. H. Hitt declined an offer of $150 for a young mare, and J. I. McCarahan and Mrs. Belle Burns each declined an offer of $50 for a cow.

Regular meeting this evening at 7:30 o'clock. All members requested to be present.

GOOD NEWS.

Many Maysville Readers Have Heard It and Profited Thereby

"Good news travels fast," and the thousands of bad back sufferers in Maysville are glad to learn that prompt relief is within their reach. Many a lame, weak and aching back is bad no more, thanks to Doan's Kidney Pills. Our citizens are telling the good news of their experience with the Old Quaker Remedy.

Here is an example worth reading: John Wallingford, living at the corner of Commerce and East Second streets, Maysville, Ky., says:

"I first procured Doan's Kidney Pills in 1899 and they stopped an attack of backache which had annoyed me for some time. My wife at that time gave for publication in our local papers a statement telling of the great benefit I had derived from Doan's Kidney Pills, and now, some five years later, I can say that the cure then effected has been complete and permanent. My back and kidneys have never given me the least cause for complaint. Mrs. Wallingford also appreciates the value of Doan's Kidney Pills from personal experience with them. She suffered most acutely with backache, especially at night, and Doan's Kidney Pills promptly and thoroughly cured her."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box; Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
